

§ 1. What are cookies?

1. The website (hereinafter: "the Service") uses cookies, which are small text files sent to and stored on your end device (e.g., computer, smartphone) when you connect to the Service.
2. These files allow the Service to recognize your device and tailor its appearance and functionality to your individual needs.

§ 2. How we use cookies?

We use cookies for the following purposes:

1. Essential Cookies: These are necessary for the proper functioning of the Service's key features, such as navigation. The website cannot function correctly without them.
2. Analytical Cookies: These help us understand how Users interact with our Service by collecting anonymous statistical data. We use tools like Google Analytics to improve our website's structure and content.
3. Marketing Cookies (Optional, if applicable): These are used to deliver advertising content that is more relevant to your interests.

§ 3. Managing Cookies

1. During your first visit, a banner is displayed asking for your consent to use analytical and marketing cookies.
2. Most web browsers allow cookies by default, but you can change your browser settings at any time to block or manage them.
3. Please note that restricting the use of cookies may affect some of the functionalities available on our Service.
